HRAI Certified HRV Installer Updated October, 2018

Certified installers can be identified through the listing below or by producing their HRAI Certification Wallet Card.

The Heating, Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Institute of Canada (HRAI) certification listing below includes the names of individuals who have successfully completed a Certified Residential Mechanical Ventilation certification and hold a current Certification Wallet Card.

For more information on certified HRAI Installers, visit www.hrai.ca

The formal qualifications of the listed individuals have been confirmed with the Heating, Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Institute of Canada.
These lists are provided for your convenience, and are not intended as endorsements or recommendations of such individuals. Newfoundland Power and Newfoundland and Labrador Hydro are not responsible for work performed by listed installers. For your protection, we recommend that you obtain quotes and references from several installers.
